

Cuppa Corner

Thursday, October 27

10 AM – 1 PM

Join us for coffee and some fun free Halloween treats and games brought to you by Our Parents' Home.

11 AM – 12 PM

A free presentation about Fraud Prevention presented by Constable Trenchard (Edmonton Police Service).

“You earned it; you keep it”

You work hard for your money. You want to spend it on things that matter to you – whether it's your children's education, an exciting trip or a new smartphone.

Fraudsters are real. They will target you online, over the phone, by mail or in person. Thousands of Canadians lose millions of dollars to fraudsters every year. Learn tips and tricks on how to protect yourself.

Cst. Trenchard (EPS)

Constable Trenchard is a 15-year member of Edmonton Police Service, and currently works in the Community Engagement Unit.

She has previously worked in Patrol and the Crime Prevention unit, and holds a Crime Prevention through environmental design (CPTED) professional designation. Constable Trenchard enjoys helping seniors identify and foil the deceptive ploys of con artists.